

Private Tour

Garvan Woodland Gardens welcomes the American Daffodil Society

•Docent-Guided Tours: One of the knowledgeable docents will guide us through the Gardens while sharing information about its rich history and lush plant life.

•Golf cart rides can also be arranged in advance. ($10 per person)

•Tours will be conducted rain or shine, excluding storms with lightening.

Please Note: Garvan Woodland Gardens features 44 acres of landscaped displays. It is recommended a minimum of 2.5 hours to complete the group tour of the Gardens.

Pratt Welcome Center

The 5,100 square foot Pratt Welcome Center, with its natural stone walls and exposed cypress posts and beams, is a beautiful gateway to the 210-acre botanical garden.

In addition, the Garden Shop, restrooms, and meeting facilities, including an executive boardroom, are also located here. Lunch will be served in the Gardens' Magnolia Room.

Convention fee includes this Sunday bus trip to Garvan Gardens and lunch at the Magnolia Room.

Garvan Woodland Gardens is a member of the American Public Gardens Association, American Bus Association, and the National Tour Association.

Daffodil Days

February 1 - March 31, 2014

9 a.m. - 6 p.m. daily - Garden Grounds

As of our opening on February 1, a few early blooming varieties of the happy, sunny daffodil are already blooming. Many more should follow in the next couple of weeks. By mid to late February, visitors will enjoy the dance of more than 250,000 daffodils in various shades of yellow when these happy blooms make their annual appearance in the Gardens.

Three Sisters of Amity Daffodil Hill

This impressive display welcomes spring with true dramatic flair. See thousands of golden chalices raised to the coming season in late February. March brings cheerful flowers in white, yellow and pink complemented by hyacinths and spring-flowering shrubs. See 235 varieties of Narcissus in one of the Gardens' most colorful shows of the year.
